

PUBLIC LEADER

By Daily Republic—1901.
Daily Public Leader—1901.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1901.

PRICE—ONE CENT.

Frank Turner was given $25.50 for lotteries; and was then given just sixteen minutes to get out of the city. He got.

The Gazette, that excellent weekly of Fleming county, this week entered on the twenty-second year of its existence.

The meeting next year of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, South, of the Mayville District will be held at Germantown.

The Synod of Kentucky, in connection with the Southern Presbyterian Assembly, convened in Hopkinsville Tuesday. Judge Shackelford Miller of Louisville was chosen Moderator.

Randolph King and Emory Frost, each aged 18, of Aberdeen attended a religious meeting and raised a disturbance. They were sentenced to the Cincinnati Workhouse for thirty days.

BAKED OYSTERS.
Wake up, Munch Oyster.
You've had enough of sleep.
We've done brought out the crackers
Full to ease your tooth's yearning.
You've gotter quit your peevish
And eat the oysters drift all away.
Wake up, Munch Oyster.
Case it's time you're on the way.
You've gotter leave de mermals
An' de shells an' de shells.
Whah de fellow done make music
Full to ease your tooth's yearning.
I know you don't want it
Lest you might lose an' all;
But you'll eat it when it's hot.
Did you get wiser yet?

—Washington Star.
The days for supplemental Registration at the County Clerk's office are Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 28th, 29th and 30th.

The last reports show that there are 20,882 Masons in Kentucky.

The C. and O. contemplates building a new freight depot at Covington.

Judge A. E. Cole has been ill several days at his home on Limestone street.

A new member has been added to the Frank Owens Hardware Company. It's a boy; and Bob Owens is unusually happy.

Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Meyer, who have been spending the summer at the National Home Hotel at the Soldiers Home at Dayton, O., will on November 1st resume their quarters at the Algonquin Hotel at that place.

Rev. J. B. Jones, whose wedding to Miss Hattie Ford took place Wednesday at the Mill Creek Christian Church, was given a reception Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Kinney, 134 Taylor avenue, Bellevue.

Mr. Joseph Wright and Miss Lula Yancy were married in this city yesterday at the residence of the officiating Minister, J. B. Simons.

A double wedding occurred yesterday at the Louisville Hotel in Louisville, when Mr. Letton Vincent of Millersburg and Miss Bessie Dudley of Carlisle, and Miss James Dudley and Miss Mattie Lou Marr of Carlisle, were married by Rev. H. A. Dawes. Mr. Dudley and Miss Dudley are sister and brother.

"Events Leading to the American Revolution" was the subject for consideration at the meeting of the "Nomads" on Wednesday, at the residence of Mrs. John Hunt. At the conclusion of the program the hostess further stimulated the patriotism of the members by serving American grown tea from the Pinehurst tea farm in North Carolina.

Seasonables!

Black Hawk
Corn Shellers,

Eagle Cutting Boxes,

Husking Gloves and Pins,
Axes, Saws, Sledge Hammers,
Corn Scoops, Hoes, Spades,
Staples, Barn Door Hinges,
Padlocks, Hatchets, Nails,
Leggings, Hunters' Supplies
generally.

Call and we'll show you the finest stock of Hardware at right prices ever exhibited.

Yours for trade,
FRANK OWENS
HARDWARE CO.

For the best and purest Spices go to Chenoweth's Drugstore.

Edgewell Cream keeps the skin soft and smooth. It's guaranteed at Ray's Drugstore.

Charles G. Calvert has been appointed Committee of Virginia Calvert, with Charles H. Harrison, D. G. Wilson and A. C. Corryell sureties.

Mrs. L. V. Davis has all the correct styles in Millinery.

Mr. Percy Plummer of Poplar Plains and Miss Tillie Weeden of Flemingsburg will wed October 19th.

Rev. W. S. Willis will sever his connection with the Christian Church at Flemingsburg when his pastoral term expires about Christmas.

STOCK CLEARANCE SALE!

A settlement of the estate of the late senior partner of this firm is to be made in January. A necessity of the event is the reduction of stock to the minimum. It is to our interest to convert goods into cash at the sacrifice of profit. It must be a clearance sale in the most comprehensive significance of the term—a sale in which neither cost, value nor loss get a moment's consideration. To reduce our immense stock is the only aim, the highest hope, the fixed determination. No man or woman who knows the value of a dollar, who understands this opportunity to save, will let it pass without taking advantage of it to the full as far as prudence and means permit. While many departments are represented here, it would take double the space this ad. occupies to tell of the dozens of other equally attractive bargains. Call on us, it's the only way to master all the facts.

SIX BIG VALUES!

No. 1—Melange Cheviot, 45 inches wide, 28c, original price 41c. In all the new fall shades. If you can judge values we are sure wisdom will guide you rightly when you see this unusual bargain.

No. 2—Black Taffeta 27 inches wide, 7c, original price 11c. Every yard guaranteed to wear. You may be surprised at the price, but you'll be more surprised at the quality.

No. 3—Onetta Union Suits, 45c instead of 75c. Soft and fine, well made and finished. Closely knit to withstand many washings. You know the garment too well to need further description.

Everything mentioned above on sale now. Of course early comers have benefit of choice. No disappointments await you, complete satisfaction stamped on every offering.

Some bigger, none better, none worthier ever offered the people of Mayville.

No. 4—Fancy Suitings, 42 and 45 inches wide, 28c, original price 75c. Dark plaids and mixtures, strictly all wool. Effective for children's dresses, women's waists, wrappers and antinees.

No. 5—Women's Fleece-lined Stockings, 22c, original price 35c. Fast black, silk fleece, ribbed or plain top, double sole and heel.

No. 6—Men's Two-piece Underwear, 45c, original price 75c. Best Maco cotton, finely woven, softly fleeced. A well cut and finished garment.

A DOLLAR is worth just what it will bring. If you had there is no place in Mayville where a dollar will bring you as much as it will here during this sale. It might buy a larger package elsewhere but we are not talking of quantities. We refer to quality and values. The following list tells what a dollar will do in some of our departments. It's not a list of exaggerations but a statement of facts.

A Dollar in the Linen Department: A Dollar in the Linen Department will buy a pair of Nottingham Lace Curtains, or ten yds. best Silk-cloth, or two yds. good heavy Tapestry, or 20 yds. of Serim or one Rope Portiere, or 5 yds. of Curtain Swiss.

A Dollar in the Colored Dress Goods Department: A Dollar in the Colored Dress Goods Department will buy an exquisite French Broadcloth, worth $1.50 or a Panna Cloth as soft as velvet worth $1.50 or a Scotch Mixed (covert for walking suits), worth $1.50.

D. HUNT & SON.

Rev. William Major of the Baptist Church at Millersburg has accepted a call to the Baptist Church at Covington, Tenn.

In the Nicholas Circuit Court the case of Mrs. Alice Gillespie against the L. and N. was compromised by the Railway paying Mrs. Gillespie $20 and the costs.

Grand Master Cole has been delighting his friends by an exhibition of the unique "ring" presented by Big Injan W. C. Pelham at the recent reception in Oddfellows Hall.

Mr. James Teeples, aged about 45, died last night at his home at Moransburg after an illness of about three weeks. He leaves one child, and his wife, who was a daughter of Andrew Brittain, died some years since.

Mr. Joseph M. Smith of this city, employed at D. Hechinger & Co.'s, and Miss Mamie Agnes Tolle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Tolle of Aberdeen, surprised their friends by going to Georgetown, O., Tuesday and being married by the Rev. Louis Ritchey.

The brick residence on West Third street belonging to the late H. C. Barkley will be sold at public auction on the premises at 10 o'clock this afternoon. This is one of the most desirable locations for a home in Mayville, and the sale of the house, which is large and well appointed, presents a fine opportunity for some one to secure a handsome home.

It Will Interest You

To know that our store is "full up" with everything in Footwear for Men, Women and Children. We introduce style, guaranteeing quality and perfect fit—all at a money-saving price to the buyer.

Become a customer and participate in our Christmas distribution of

$100.00
IN GOLD

Good fortune often overtakes those who least expect it. Though you may not receive the highest cash gift—$50—there are still eleven other liberal presents to be had from.

BARKLEY'S!

Next Sunday morning the Rev. F. W. Harrop will preach to the Knights of the Golden Eagle, who will attend a body.

The reunion of the Seventeenth Ohio closed yesterday at Aberdeen, and the glorious old "boys" returned to their homes—some of them, alas! never to attend another earthly reunion!

There are twenty-two Past Grand Masters of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Kentucky now living, fourteen of the number being in attendance at the meeting this week at Louisville.

ATTORNEYS EMPLOYED.

A Ripley Editor Going After the Western Union Telegraph Co.

Colonel Tom Foster of the Ripley Record has attorneys employed to recover a suit for damages against the Western Union Telegraph Company for failure to deliver messages that were sent to The Record at the time President McKinley was shot.

Several messages came to that paper on September 6th, 7th and afterward, but instead of delivering them, or notifying The Record that they had come, the operator turned them over to various men of the town, they signing the name "Record" for them and paying charges.

The outcome of Editor Foster's suit will be watched with interest.

SEE
TOMORROW'S
ADD.

THE BEE HIVE

Saturday is
First BARGAIN Night.
See Window.

Friday
Dresser Scarf

Something to make the home look pretty. Would be very cheap for 50c.

Friday only at 29c

EMERZ-BROS.

KINGS OF
LOW PRICES

PROPRIETORS
BEE HIVE

MAYSICK'S MEETING.

Program For the Convention to Be Held Next Sunday Afternoon.

The following program has been arranged for the Mayslick Convention, which is to be held at the Baptist Church on next Sunday afternoon, October 29th, at 2:30 o'clock, sun time, with E. P. Pogue presiding, and the music in charge of Prof. W. R. Chandler and J. J. Yancey:

Song.
Prayer—Rev. J. B. Holly.
Song.
Address—"The Early Conversion of Children"—Rev. R. Barbour.
Solo—Miss Hays.
Address, five minutes—To be supplied.
Song.
Address, five minutes—Mr. M. F. Marsh.
Song.
Address, five minutes—Mr. George H. Frank.
Address—Dr. A. H. Lindsey, Flemingsburg.
The election of officers and collection of funds for the state work.
Song.
Closing prayer.

Many thanks to many patrons for copies of a recent issue of THE LEADER to supply a want. The latest came from Mr. William Crawford of Tuckahoe and George E. Hughes of Newport.

Mr. R. W. Jones, a fifty-year-old widower, married Miss Lucanna Pruitt, a twenty-year-old girl, at Gretna.

At the meeting of Synod at Lebanon last week Rev. John Barbour of this city was elected Trustee for two years for Central University, Danville. A special committee was appointed to make preparations for the Synod's centennial celebration next October at Lexington, and following year at Hopkinsville.

Mrs. Lucy Beckett died near Flemingsburg, aged about 81.

Mr. E. S. Cook, aged 28, and Miss Anna Belle Stoker, aged 19, both of Nicholas county, were married in this city yesterday.

EP Murray & Thomas will give the lowest prices consistent with honest work—and they do no other kind. If in the market for Monumental or any kind of stonework, you will miss it if you miss them.

TO THE VOTERS OF MATSVILLE.
I am a candidate for Police Judge before the people, and shall have them decide by their votes November 24th whether or not they wish me to be Judge of the Police Court of Mayville. Respectfully,
HARRY C. CURRAN.

IF SOME OF YOUR FRIENDS

Are going to get married
you could not make a more appropriate gift than a piece of fine Cut Glass.
Call and look over the many beautiful pieces we have just opened.

BALLENGER
Jeweler and Optician.

At the New York Store of Hays & Co. you can find an excellent selection of LATEST WRAPS!

Consisting of Cloth and Plush Capes, Long and Short Jackets; also a splendid assortment of Fur Storm Collars and Collarettes. Since our business career in your city we have been known to carry the best values in this line. A visit will convince you.

CAPE!

A nice Cloth Cape 75c, a good Heavy Cape $1, Fur Scarfs $1 and up, a good Plush Cape $1.98.

JACKET!

A splendid all-wool Jacket, new and up-to-date colors, only $4.98. The $15 kind at our place only $9.50. Colors, tan, black, red and castor.

DRY GOODS.

Our stock better and larger than ever. See our 40c line of Novelties. Heavy Skirt Goods, worth $1, our price only 75c. Come and give us a look.

MILLINERY

Our Millinery business has surpassed our expectations. No wonder; our Hats are eye-openers. A stylish, up-to-date Trimmed Hat only $1.49. $5 Hats at other places, here for $2.50. See our Walking Hats, only 50c.

SHOES

We have what you want cheaper than anywhere else. Ladies' good shoes for winter only $1. Men's good heavy shoes $2. Men's $3 kind, $2 here.

HAYS & CO.

SPECIAL—Heavy Dark and Light Outing, worth 75c, our price 45c; good, heavy Canton Flannel only 5c, worth 85c; extra heavy B'n Cotton 45c; 6 spools Clark's Thread 25c, any number.

PUBLIC LEADER

ACCEPTED SUNDAY, JULY FOURTH, WASHINGTON AND CHRISTMAS.

Thomas A. Day

OFFICE—Public Leader Building, No. 19 East Third Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

SUBSCRIPTIONS—IN ADVANCE
One Year.....$5.00
Six Months.....2.50
Three Months.....1.50
DELIVERED BY CARRIER
Per Month.....35 Cents
Payable in Advance at end of Month.

The Caled Powers Jury is unanimously Democratic; and so is the "Court." This insures, of course, a perfectly "free, fair and impartial" political trial for the Republican defendant.

JOHANN MOST, the Anarchist, was sentenced to one year in the Penitentiary by the Court of Special Sessions in New York for publishing in his paper, The Freiheit, an alleged seditious article on the day following the shooting of the late President McKinley. Wonder if the bewhiskered Horv will be allowed to edit his paper and a brewery from the prison?

It is presumed that Governor DUBIN of Indiana is keeping tab on the manner of selecting a jury for the trial of the Hon. CALD POWERS. It will furnish him some valuable pointers when he goes to make up his statement as to the surrender of Governor TAYLOR and CHARLIE FINLEY into the hands of CANTRELL and his brigands.

In the Presidential election in 1900 the vote of Scott and Bourbon counties was—

Scott	McKinley	Bryan
2,237	2,237	2,411
Bourbon	2,237	2,411
	4,324	4,948
		4,324

Democratic majority..... 624

And yet, when a Democratic Sheriff went into these two counties by order of a Democratic Judge to summon nearly four hundred veniremen from that to select a jury for the trial of CALD POWERS there were only five Republicans in the lot. To an outsider, this may appear a bit strange, considering the somewhat close political division of the two parties; but it should be borne in mind that POWERS is an ex-Republican state official, and that his conviction is necessary to Democratic success in Kentucky—wherefore, it is necessary that he be tried by a jury which is unanimously Democratic!

IN ORDER TO PLACE OUR

Optical Business!

MORE GENERALLY BEFORE THE PUBLIC WE HAVE PUT ON SALE ONE OF

The Best Spectacles

Ever Placed.... For $1.00! on the Market

Per Pair, they are sold everywhere for $2. Our stock of Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry is the best to be found anywhere. See us before buying anything in this line.

MURPHY, THE JEWELER!

OPPOSITE
(DDP) 110 10-10-11

Y.M.C.A.

After some necessary repairs the Y. M. C. A. will begin the regular gymnasium work Tuesday, October 22. The Business Men's Class will meet at 4 o'clock Tuesdays and Fridays for one hour, and the Young Men's Class at 7:30 on Tuesdays and Fridays for one hour. The Junior will have their physical work at 4 p.m. Wednesdays and at 10 a.m. Saturdays.

General Secretary Pilkington has a very thorough physical course arranged, and the prospect for large classes is encouraging.

The business men who have taken the gymnasium work are very enthusiastic and are working hard to get others interested in the work.

There can be no better recreation for a business man than to spend one hour in the gymnasium twice a week. Many business men today are being compelled to give up their business because of close confinement. The work of the Y. M. C. A. should appeal to every man.

With the complete equipment that the Association has in all departments men cannot find a better place to spend a social hour, read, play games, etc. The social life of the Association appeals to every young man.

Evening Educational Classes will begin Monday evening, October 22, at 7:15.

Following is the schedule of classes: Monday and Wednesday evenings, 7:15 to 8 o'clock, Penmanship; Monday and Wednesday evenings, 8 to 8:45, Book-keeping; Monday and Wednesday evenings, 8:45 to 9:30, Commercial Arithmetic.

Classes in Short Hand and Typewriting are organized but the time of meeting will be announced later.

The Association realizes the needs of young men and has provided means whereby young men can prepare themselves for a more active business life.

The enrollment in the evening classes is quite large, and still many are contemplating taking the work.

Miss Helen Newton, a Missionary lately arrived from India, a cousin of Miss Mary Forman, and well known in this county, made an address before the Woman's Presbyterian Meeting at Cincinnati Tuesday.

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, ancient, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preference. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the street-vendor's effort to make her owner purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gown, then let her forgo her health against the insidious consequences of cough-cold and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Ross's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and break the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. Ross's reliable remedies at J. J. Lee & Son's, 1000 Wisconsin Avenue, Washington, D.C.

The American Investment Company

(INCORPORATED.)
CAPITAL STOCK $25,000 00
RESERVE SURPLUS 125,000 00
AMOUNT PAID COUPON HOLDERS 200,000 00

ADDRESS ALL CORRESPONDENCE TO THE HOME OFFICE, LEXINGTON, KY.

GOOD TERMS TO FIRST-CLASS AGENTS.

Corn on the best lands isn't turning out more than a bushel to the shock in some parts of the country.

MAY INTEREST YOU.

Letters Awaiting Claimants at the Maysville Postoffice.

Below is a list of letters remaining unclaimed for at the Postoffice for the week ending October 16, 1901:

Baldwin, W. Jameson, Irvin
Barker, Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. Paule
Bishop, Mrs. John Jones, Mrs. R. E.
Carpenter, Mrs. Nellie Maxwell, Bob
Davis, J. K. Johnson, Mrs. John
Egan, James Picke, R. W.
Hansy, Mrs. Sallie President W. C. T. U.
Hick, Mrs. Bessie Bowman, Phil
Jackson, Miss Bertha Stuart, Rev. H. J.
With the complete equipment that the Association has in all departments men cannot find a better place to spend a social hour, read, play games, etc. The social life of the Association appeals to every young man.

Evening Educational Classes will begin Monday evening, October 22, at 7:15.

Following is the schedule of classes: Monday and Wednesday evenings, 7:15 to 8 o'clock, Penmanship; Monday and Wednesday evenings, 8 to 8:45, Book-keeping; Monday and Wednesday evenings, 8:45 to 9:30, Commercial Arithmetic.

Classes in Short Hand and Typewriting are organized but the time of meeting will be announced later.

The Association realizes the needs of young men and has provided means whereby young men can prepare themselves for a more active business life.

The enrollment in the evening classes is quite large, and still many are contemplating taking the work.

Miss Helen Newton, a Missionary lately arrived from India, a cousin of Miss Mary Forman, and well known in this county, made an address before the Woman's Presbyterian Meeting at Cincinnati Tuesday.

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, ancient, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preference. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the street-vendor's effort to make her owner purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gown, then let her forgo her health against the insidious consequences of cough-cold and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Ross's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and break the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. Ross's reliable remedies at J. J. Lee & Son's, 1000 Wisconsin Avenue, Washington, D.C.

Baby Eczema.

Mr. F. S. Rose, of 123 Sixteenth street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes: "Our baby boy suffered for some time with that wretched eczema, and we were unable to find anything to cure or even relieve his pain. A few applications of Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment stopped the itching and healed the sores, and a bright, natural skin now takes their place."

For sale by THOS. J. CHENOWETH.

Dr. W. W. JONES, PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, OFFICE—30 E. Third Street, MAYSVILLE, KY.

OFFICE HOURS: 9 to 10 a.m., 2 to 4 p.m., 7 to 8 p.m.

DR. LANDMAN, CENTRAL HOTEL, THURSDAY, NOV. 7, 1901.

I REPAIR

Need and make new Bells, Bicycles, Automobiles and such things. No work or need for me and I'll do the work.

DR. C. S. KENNEDY, OFFICE—212 WEST SECOND STREET, MAYSVILLE, KY.

THE COMMONWEALTH.

GUARDS AGAIN FIRED ON.

More Shooting Takes Place at the Providence Mines—Attributed to Irresponsible Persons.

Madisonville, Ky., Oct. 17.—More shooting has occurred in Webster and Hopkins counties. Guards at the Providence mines were fired on from ambush Tuesday night and again Wednesday morning. Twenty shots were fired in the vicinity of the Reinicke mines by parties concealed in the woods some distance away. This shooting is attributed to irresponsible persons.

The union miners begin the first of a series of mass meetings at the court house here Wednesday night, Gen. Murray furnishing a detachment of 20 state guards to accompany the speakers to the meeting places.

It was reported Wednesday morning that Capt. Ellis, in command of a detachment at Morton's Gap, was threatened by armed guards. The captain, when sent, refused to discuss the matter, but had made a report to Gen. Murray.

Regimental Quartermaster Sergt. Emberton was publicly degraded and stripes were cut from his clothes Wednesday for being drunk and disorderly. He fired several shots at his comrades.

IN A DRUNKEN BRAWL.

One Man Killed and Two Fatally Injured in a Battle at Carr's Fork, Knott County.

Mayking, Ky., Oct. 17.—Minute details of a bloody battle at Carr's Fork, Knott county, near the Letcher line, have just reached here. Early Tuesday Andy, Perry and William Sloan and Alex. Martin met at a "blind tiger" and indulged in considerable whisky. A game of cards was followed by a general melee, in which 50 or more shots were fired. When the smoke cleared, Andy Sloan lay dead, Alex. Martin received a mortal wound, while William Sloan received perhaps a fatal wound. Perry Sloan was arrested by the sheriff and lodged in jail.

Got Verdict for $10,000.

Russellville, Ky., Oct. 17.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Banks Gillum vs. the L. & N. Railroad Co. returned a verdict for plaintiff for $10,000. Mrs. Gillum's husband was killed on the Owensboro & Russellville division of this road a year ago last February while acting in the capacity of fireman.

A REPUTATION.

How It Was Made and Retained in Maysville.

A good reputation is not easily earned, and it was only by hard, consistent work among our citizens that Doan's Kidney Pills won their way to the proud distinction attained in this locality. The public indorsement of scores of Maysville residents has rendered invaluable service to the community. Read what this citizen says:

Mr. C. H. Cooper of 219 West Second street says:

"For many years I suffered from attacks of kidney trouble, and had reason to think I was fast drifting into Bright's disease. I had the great good fortune to learn about Doan's Kidney Pills, and procured them at J. A. Wood & Son's Drugstore. The remarkable benefit I obtained from the treatment is a guarantee of the marvelous value and effectiveness of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents a box. FOSTER-MILBURN CO., Buffalo, N. Y., Sole Agents for the United States.

Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.

Victims of Firebrakes.

Williamstown, Ky., Oct. 17.—Dr. W. H. Daugherty's residence, at Corinth, was destroyed by fire as the result of the malice of firebrakes. On the two previous nights the house was set on fire, but the fire was extinguished with slight damage.

A Distiller Seriously Hurt.

Smithington, Ky., Oct. 17.—Robert Thompson, a distiller of Joy, Livingston county, is in a critical condition. While hauling water three barrels rolled over him, injuring him internally.

Ex-Judge Morton Dead.

Marion, Ky., Oct. 17.—Former County Judge John P. Morton, who wandered away several weeks ago while mentally unbalanced, died Wednesday morning from the effects of his long journey.

Pail Meeting at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 17.—R. O. Farmer, of the Canadian racing circuit, who is in Louisville, closed a contract for the trotting track here where he will hold a 10-day running meeting this fall, beginning November 2.

Body of an Unknown Man Found.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 17.—The body of an unknown man was found here Wednesday near the railroad tracks on Fourteenth street. The body was well dressed.

Found Dead in Bed.

Lebanon, Ky., Oct. 17.—William E. Yowell, aged 65, a farmer, was found dead in bed Wednesday morning. A trial that had contained morphine was found in the room.

Accidentally Shot.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Oct. 17.—John Forb, a waiter at the Phoenix hotel, was accidentally shot by Robert Randolph and instantly killed Wednesday evening. Both colored.

Killed by a Train.

Lebanon, Ky., Oct. 17.—Henry Grimes, a young married man, was run over by a C. & O. train at Coyle's crossing and instantly killed.

Dead Woman's Body Found.

New Philadelphia, O., Oct. 17.—Wednesday the dead body of Mrs. Joshua Hensel was found in a cornfield in the rear of her house on North Third street. Wounds on her body indicate murder.

NEW CONVENTION.

Russia Secretly Negotiating With China For the Legal Occupation of Manchuria.

SAME LINE AS APRIL 5 AGREEMENT.

The Matter is in Earl Li's Hands. Who Can Be Trusted to Serve Russian Interests.

Prince Chang is Indignant Because He Has Been Kept in Ignorance—Two Vice Regents Have Protested Against the Deal.

London, Oct. 17.—The new Manchurian convention, which has been the subject of negotiations between M. Paul Lessar, Russian minister to China, and Li Hung Chang, is on the same lines as the convention which Russia withdrew April 5, says the Peking correspondent of the Times, but it is not so cleverly worked, so as to save China's face.

In consequence of previous disclosures a jealous secrecy has been observed, but the important negotiations by which Russia seeks to legalize her occupation of Manchuria have been entrusted to Li Hung Chang, who can be better trusted to serve Russian interests than any other Chinese statesman.

Prince Chang is indignant because he has been kept in ignorance, and both the Yangtze viceroys have twice protested against the negotiations. The same power of the opposition that was employed before is again being used to prevent the ratification of the convention, but Russia's promise to restore the railway from Shan-Hai-Kwan to Nieu-Chwang is a powerful lever in the hands of M. Lessar.

COMMITTED MANY MURDERS.

The Notorious Brigand Mussolino Captured After a Pivotal Resistance at Urbino.

Rome, Oct. 17.—The notorious brigand, Mussolino, has been captured, after a fierce resistance, at Urbino. He had long terrorized Calabria, and was credited with having committed 25 murders. Owing to the sympathy shown him by the peasantry, he always escaped capture, despite the numerous rewards the government offered for his arrest.

His career as an outlaw began two years ago when he was liberated from a prison by a peasant. He was then committed. He vowed to kill the 15 witnesses who were responsible for his conviction, and he is said to have actually dispatched 12.

FOUGHT IN THE DARK.

A Battle Between Officers and a Score of Colored Gamblers Near St. Augustine.

St. Augustine, Fla., Oct. 17.—At a house near Bond's turpentine camp, in this county, Sheriff Perry and a number of deputized officers closed in on a score of Negro gamblers, having committed 25 murders. Owing to the sympathy shown him by the peasantry, he always escaped capture, despite the numerous rewards the government offered for his arrest.

His career as an outlaw began two years ago when he was liberated from a prison by a peasant. He was then committed. He vowed to kill the 15 witnesses who were responsible for his conviction, and he is said to have actually dispatched 12.

ROOF COAL FELL.

Four Men Killed in the Klonkide Mine of the Delaware and Hudson Co. at Archbald, Pa.

Sheraton, Pa., Oct. 17.—A fall of roof coal caused the death of four men in the Klonkide mine of the Delaware & Hudson Co. at Archbald Wednesday afternoon. The men were killed by a fall of roof coal.

A car had run down a plane in the mine, jumped the track and knocked out a number of props. The men in charge of Foreman Nealon were replacing the props when a great slab of rock fell, killing them instantly.

Favors a Strong Navy.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Representative Clayton of West Virginia, and Meyer of Louisiana, who are members of the naval affairs committee of the house, had a talk with the president Wednesday afternoon about the navy with respect to the navy. The president was vigorous in his expressions of a desire to see a strong navy built up.

Two Years at Hard Labor.

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—John M. Neill, formerly a captain in the United States army, recently convicted of forgery, was Wednesday sentenced to two years at San Quentin at hard labor.

Transport Thomas Sails.

San Francisco, Oct. 17.—The transport Thomas sailed Wednesday for Manila with a large number of passengers, among them being several officers and about 100 teachers. There are also many civilian employees.

Embarking Bookkeeper.

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 17.—D. M. Wolf, bookkeeper for the First National bank of Tyrone, Pa., has confessed to the embezzlement of $12,000 of the bank's funds.

EXPRESS ROBBERY.

The Arrest of Annie Rogers at Nashville Retards the Capture of the Bandits.

HOLD-UP WAS NEAR WAGNER, MONT.

Before the Woman's Apprehension the Pinkerton's Had Laid Plans for the Seizure of the Robbers.

The Trainmen on the Great Northern Overland Express Have Identified the Photographs of the Suspected Men.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 17.—The capture of the bandits who held up the Great Northern Overland express at Wagner, Mont., July 6, secured $15,000 in bank notes, officials of the Great Northern Express Co. say has been seriously delayed by the announcement of the capture at Nashville of Anna Rogers, alias Maude Williams, supposed to be connected with the gang. Before her arrest the Pinkerton agency and police officers had laid plans which seemed to assure a speedy capture of the robbers.

President and General Manager Elliott, of the express company, said: "This woman, according to advice, was in communication with some of the robbers at New Orleans. When that man read the account of her capture in Wednesday morning's papers he probably discerned that she was his. Her arrest had not been made we probably would have secured him and perhaps the rest of the men. Their capture would have been easier or later, but it has been delayed."

"The published account of the arrest of the Rogers woman is correct. She walked into the bank and asked to exchange part of her money for others and larger denominations. She was, of course, arrested at once."

Mr. Elliott says that the express company does not know how the bandits escaped from the mountain south of Wagner, where pursued, nor their movements since. The identification made at the time, he says, has been substantiated. The trainmen on the Overland have identified photographs of the suspected men as pictures of the robbers.

ANNIE ROGERS.

The Woman Arrested Charged With Attempting to Pass Forged Bank Notes Held for Trial.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 17.—The woman, Annie Rogers, alias Maude Williams, under arrest here charged with attempting to pass forged bank notes supposed to have been stolen by the gang that robbed the Great Northern express near Wagner, Mont., last July, was arraigned in a magistrate's court Wednesday. Her preliminary trial was set for 10 o'clock Thursday morning. The prisoner declined to decline to answer questions regarding herself, and if she has told the officers anything they have not made it public. An especial effort was made during the day to locate the lodging place of the woman. There, it was hoped, her trunk would be found, but after running down half a dozen dead ends the officers found the trunk at the same place as when they started the work in the morning. The officers received information during the day that the woman had been at Shreveport, La., and had evidently come to Nashville through Memphis. This led them to believe that possibly some of the men involved in the robbery might be in or near the latter city.

AUTOMOBILE SERVICE.

A Contract Let by the Post Office Department for Carrying the Mails in Minneapolis, Minn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—A contract for automobile mail service in Minneapolis, Minn., an experiment which may result in the expansion of the service generally, was made by the post office department Wednesday. It gives the Republic Motor Vehicle Co., $17,375 for carrying the mails between the post office, postal stations and substations and collections from some of the letter boxes in the business section of the city from January 1, 1922, to June 30, 1923.

TERRIBLE TYPHOON.

Half the Southern Part of Luzon Submerged—Twenty People Killed and Town of Baler Wrecked.

Manila, Oct. 17.—The worst typhoon known in Luzon for several days, and still continues. Railroad, telegraph and other property has been destroyed, and 20 persons were killed in Manila bay. The town of Baler was wiped out. Fully half of the southern part of Luzon has been submerged. Ambassadors Widenow to Resign.

Berlin, Oct. 17.—Count von Hatzfeldt-Wildenberg, German ambassador to Great Britain, is in poor health and will soon resign, it is reported. Among his possible successors are Count von Wedel and Count Wolf Metternich.

Princeton Defeated Dickinson. Princeton, N. J., Oct. 17.—Princeton defeated Dickinson in a football game yesterday by a score of 27 to 0. One touchdown was made in the first half and two touchdowns and a goal from the field by Dewitt in the second.

GOEBEL'S ASSASSINATION.

A Witness Swore That a Young Newport Attorney Said He Hired Combs to Commit the Deed.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 17.—Wednesday morning the first witness was Frank Hendry, who described the scene a moment after the shooting of Goebel as he described it before.

H. K. Watkins, captain of the military company at Williamsburg, told that he was asked by John Goebel to take his company to Frankfort, to be armed, but not uniformed, but did not do so.

Banker John A. Powers, of Barboursville, told how he furnished the money to move the mountaineers to Frankfort.

Miss Ella Smith, of Barboursville, who was John L. Powers' sweetheart, again told her story of John Powers telling her after the Goebel tragedy that he was asked by John Goebel to take his company to Frankfort, to be armed, but not uniformed, but did not do so.

On cross-examination the defense asked her about her ability to memorize things. The commonwealth objected and was sustained.

Miss Ella Smith, of Barboursville, was called. He was a new witness, and was one of a company of men who went to Frankfort. He said there were 60 men in his company. He said he met Powers, who told him on the morning of the assassination that Goebel would be killed before night.

A Witness With a Record.

He also said he had modeled for him in the presence of Tallow Dick Combs that Goebel would be killed within two days, and Combs would do it.

He was going to give Combs $100, and 25 other men, with the same. Youtsey is alleged to have said:

On cross-examination Hopkins said he was in Covington as a witness in the United States court, and met Arthur Goebel there, and told him his testimony as above. Owens asked if he had been arrested. He answered: "For stealing water."

"Anything else?" asked Owens. "Once for murder, once for malicious shooting and once for swindling the government," answered the witness.

Hopkins admitted that he has 11 times faced a jury on murder charges, three victims being laid to rest. He also bears the scars of knife and bullet in many other little troubles, as he called them, when talking to Tom Campbell.

CANTRILL THREATENED.

A Guard Placed Around His House and the Judge is Being Closely Watched.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 17.—Judge Cantrell is being closely guarded, as a result of an incident that occurred Monday night. The judge is ill, and was feared that he was about to break down. Mrs. Cantrell ordered a cot brought into the courthouse for the use of the judge in such event, so that he would not be obliged to adjourn court. When the cot was being carried into the courthouse Monday night, three men, described as probable thugs, entered the court and began to carry the cot and asked who it was for.

"Judge Cantrell," was the reply. "That's the judge's cot," said the strangers, "he'll need it before this case is over."

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

The men promptly informed Mrs. Cantrell and she, in turn, informed the officers found them, and they were taken to the jail. They were taken to the jail, and they were taken to the jail.

FLYING SQUADRON.

Capt. Cook Recalled and Testified as to the Voyage From Cincinnati to Santiago.

CAUSE OF SLOW PASSAGE EXPLAINED.

Commander Sears Decried That He Had Said Anything Reflecting Upon His Superior Officer.

Commander Mason and Lieut. McCauley and Webster Give Accounts of Engagements at Santiago on July 3.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The officers of Adm. Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, occupied the attention of the court of inquiry for the entire day Wednesday. The proceedings began with the recall of Capt. Cook and Lieut. Commander Sears, both of whom made material additions to their former testimony, and they were followed in succession by Commander N. E. Mason, who was the executive officer of the Brooklyn; Lieut. E. McCauley, who was signal officer and Lieut. Charles Webster, who had charge of the forward gun deck battery of the Brooklyn.

SCHOOL STATISTICS.

About 21 Per Cent. of the Total Population Attend Public and Two Per Cent. Private Schools.

Washington, Oct. 17.—About 21 per cent. of the total population of the United States attend public schools and two per cent. of the rest attend private schools, according to the annual report of the commissioner of education. The grand total in all schools, elementary, secondary and higher, public and private, for the year ended July 1, 1906, was 17,020,710 pupils, an increase of 252,248 over the previous year. Of this number the government public institutions supported by general and local taxes was 15,442,462. Counting in special institutions, such as evening schools, Indian schools, schools connected with asylums, reform schools, and other institutions more or less educational in their character, increased the total number by half a million pupils.

Washington, Oct. 17.—About 21 per cent. of the total population of the United States attend public schools and two per cent. of the rest attend private schools, according to the annual report of the commissioner of education. The grand total in all schools, elementary, secondary and higher, public and private, for the year ended July 1, 1906, was 17,020,710 pupils, an increase of 252,248 over the previous year. Of this number the government public institutions supported by general and local taxes was 15,442,462. Counting in special institutions, such as evening schools, Indian schools, schools connected with asylums, reform schools, and other institutions more or less educational in their character, increased the total number by half a million pupils.

Washington, Oct. 17.—About 21 per cent. of the total population of the United States attend public schools and two per cent. of the rest attend private schools, according to the annual report of the commissioner of education. The grand total in all schools, elementary, secondary and higher, public and private, for the year ended July 1, 1906, was 17,020,710 pupils, an increase of 252,248 over the previous year. Of this number the government public institutions supported by general and local taxes was 15,442,462. Counting in special institutions, such as evening schools, Indian schools, schools connected with asylums, reform schools, and other institutions more or less educational in their character, increased the total number by half a million pupils.

Washington, Oct. 17.—About 21 per cent. of the total population of the United States attend public schools and two per cent. of the rest attend private schools, according to the annual report of the commissioner of education. The grand total in all schools, elementary, secondary and higher, public and private, for the year ended July 1, 1906, was 17,020,710 pupils, an increase of 252,248 over the previous year. Of this number the government public institutions supported by general and local taxes was 15,442,462. Counting in special institutions, such as evening schools, Indian schools, schools connected with asylums, reform schools, and other institutions more or less educational in their character, increased the total number by half a million pupils.

Washington, Oct. 17.—About 21 per cent. of the total population of the United States attend public schools and two per cent. of the rest attend private schools, according to the annual report of the commissioner of education. The grand total in all schools, elementary, secondary and higher, public and private, for the year ended July 1, 1906, was 17,020,710 pupils, an increase of 252,248 over the previous year. Of this number the government public institutions supported by general and local taxes was 15,442,462. Counting in special institutions, such as evening schools, Indian schools, schools connected with asylums, reform schools, and other institutions more or less educational in their character, increased the total number by half a million pupils.

Washington, Oct. 17.—About 21 per cent. of the total population of the United States attend public schools and two per cent. of the rest attend private schools, according to the annual report of the commissioner of education. The grand total in all schools, elementary, secondary and higher, public and private, for the year ended July 1, 1906, was 17,020,710 pupils, an increase of 252,248 over the previous year. Of this number the government public institutions supported by general and local taxes was 15,442,462. Counting in special institutions, such as evening schools, Indian schools, schools connected with asylums, reform schools, and other institutions more or less educational in their character, increased the total number by half a million pupils.

Washington, Oct. 17.—About 21 per cent. of the total population of the United States attend public schools and two per cent. of the rest attend private schools, according to the annual report of the commissioner of education. The grand total in all schools, elementary, secondary and higher, public and private, for the year ended July 1, 1906, was 17,020,710 pupils, an increase of 252,248 over the previous year. Of this number the government public institutions supported by general and local taxes was 15,442,462. Counting in special institutions, such as evening schools, Indian schools, schools connected with asylums, reform schools, and other institutions more or less educational in their character, increased the total number by half a million pupils.

Washington, Oct. 17.—About 21 per cent. of the total population of the United States attend public schools and two per cent. of the rest attend private schools, according to the annual report of the commissioner of education. The grand total in all schools, elementary, secondary and higher, public and private, for the year ended July 1, 1906, was 17,020,710 pupils, an increase of 252,248 over the previous year. Of this number the government public institutions supported by general and local taxes was 15,442,462. Counting in special institutions, such as evening schools, Indian schools, schools connected with asylums

The Great Yellow Ribbon Fair at Aberdeen Tomorrow and Friday!
BE SURE YOU GO AND HAVE A REGULAR OLD-FASHIONED GOOD TIME.

SAY, IF YOU NEED A PAIR OF GOOD SHOES!
To wear, stop at DAN COHEN'S Great Western Shoe Store.

W. H. MEANS. MANAGER.